United States District Judge

JUDGE ARMSTRONG'S STANDING ORDERS

Effective November 8, 2010

1. Compliance with Local Rules: Counsel are expected to consult and comply with all provisions of the Local Rules of Court relating to continuances, motions and all other matters.

2. Law and Motion Calendar: The Court's law and motion calendar takes place on Tuesdays. The criminal law and motion calendar begins at 9:00 a.m. The civil law and motion calendar begins at 1:00 p.m. Civil matters shall not be noticed for hearing on a Tuesday following an official court holiday that falls on a Monday. The Court may, pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 78(b) and Civil L.R. 7-1(b), resolve motions without a hearing. The parties are advised to confer with the Court's website at <http://www.cand.uscourts.gov> to determine whether an appearance on the motion is required.

3. Setting Motions for Hearing: The Court does not reserve hearing dates. To schedule a matter on the Court's civil law and motion calendar, the parties are directed to review the Court's calendar at www.cand.uscourts.gov to determine the next available hearing date. Matters are calendared on a first come first serve basis. You MUST submit Chambers Copies (i.e., hard copies) of all motion papers filed in E-FILED cases in order to be placed on calendar. Voluminous exhibits should be placed in binders, with divider tabs.

4. Checking the Calendar Before You Appear: Before appearing for a matter before this Court all parties shall check the court's calendar at www.cand.uscourts.gov to confirm that their matters are still on calendar.

5. Meet and Confer Requirement: All parties are expected to meet and confer before filing any motion before the Court. The motion and any other non-stipulated request shall include a certification, which may be included in the body of the document, that the parties have complied with the meet and confer requirement. The Court may disregard any papers submitted that do not comply with this rule.

6. Summary Judgment/Partial Summary Judgment: The parties are not required to file statements of undisputed facts in connection with a motion for summary judgment. However, if the parties desire to file a statement of undisputed facts, only one joint statement of undisputed facts signed by all parties shall be filed. All separate statements will be stricken. If the parties are unable to agree that a fact is undisputed, they should assume that fact is in dispute.

7. Proposed Orders: Each party filing or opposing a motion shall also serve and file a proposed order which sets forth the relief of action which includes that the party requests the Court to adopt, a short statement of the rationale of decision including citation to authority.

8. Effect of Failing to Oppose a Motion: The failure of the opposing party to timely file a memorandum of points and authorities in opposition to any motion or request shall constitute a consent to the granting of the motion.

9. Criminal Schedule: Criminal Law and Motion will be held on Tuesdays at 9:00 a.m. Prior to a plea being entered in a criminal case, a copy of the plea agreement must be submitted to chambers no later than the Friday before the plea is to be taken. All persons pleading guilty must complete an application for permission to enter plea of guilty, which is available on the Court's website at www.cand.uscourts.gov.

10. Courtesy Copies in e-Filing Cases: When filing papers in connection with any motion or case management conference, the parties shall, in addition to filing papers electronically, lodge with the Clerk's Office a printed copy of the papers by the close of business the following day the papers are filed electronically. These printed copies shall be marked "Chambers Copy" and shall be submitted to the Clerk's Office, in an envelope clearly marked with the judge's name, case number and "E-Filing Chambers Copy." Parties shall not file a paper copy of any other document with the Clerk's Office that has already been filed electronically. You MUST submit a hard copy of all motion papers filed in E-FILED cases in order to be placed on calendar.

Counsel are further expected to file a Case Management Statement at least ten (10) days before each and every scheduled Case Management Conference. Failure to timely file a Case Management Statement may result in sanctions.

A request to continue a Case Management Conference shall be made in a separately-filed request, separate from the Case Management Conference Statement. Counsel shall not contact the chambers of Judge Armstrong regarding requests to modify provisions of this Standing Order; all requests must be submitted in writing and served on all parties to the action.

The parties should be prepared to address and resolve at the Case Management Conference the following: Setting the date and the estimated length of the trial; setting the deadline for joining parties and amending the pleadings; setting the date for discovery and motion cutoff; setting the date to designate experts and other witnesses; setting the date for the pretrial Conference.
